

Problem Statement

The Gym and Library are always busy, and people don't have time to waste! People wish that there was an app that could track the traffic in the gym and library. So, I want to create a solution. Whether it is a website or app that can give the approximate wait time, people will know when the locations are busy or slow.

Details